Mrs. William Croteau, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. McMunn, at Quincy, for the past month, will leave tomorrow for her home at Aldermere, B. C. She will take with her 10 dozens of chickens, as young fowls are extremely difficult to raise in that country on account of hawks and wild animals. On a former trip, which is 1800 miles long, Mrs. Croteau took several coops of chickens that had to be carried 65 miles of the distance on horseback, and were two weeks on their journey, which may be made now in a week's time.

The many friends of Tom Ordeman, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, will be pleased to learn that he is back in Salem and progressing nicely along the road to recovery.

Gilson's barber shop has moved to the Bligh building on State street.

"Play and Playgrounds" was the subject talked upon last night at the Central Congregational church by Dr. Bertha Stuart, of the State university. Mrs. Stuart is an able and entertaining speaker, and in her address she showed that she was thoroughly acquainted with the science of amusing the little ones. She gave her audience many valuable pointers as to the forms of amusements for the children, and pointed out many reasons why the tots should be supplied with various kinds of simple entertainment.

Dr. Mendelsohn fits eyes correctly. U. S. Bank building.

Edward Ogle, et al., filed a complaint in the circuit court yesterday against Helen C. Hurst to recover $1000 damages for an alleged misrepresentation of certain lands purchased by them.

Dr. F. L. Utter, dentist, Masonic bldg.

Do not be misled. You do not pay one cent more when Dr. Mendelsohn fits you with glasses than you would be required to pay elsewhere. Besides you get the best possible service from one who has had 31 years' practical experience, and can refer you to over 4000 satisfied patients. Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn, U. S. National Bank building.

The Spa placed a unique display in one of its windows this morning in honor of St. Patrick, that is attracting considerable attention. Green moss from the woods lines the window upon which curl snakes of various sizes, while emerald green hogs are to be seen bearing clover leaves in their mouths, but nowhere are the proverbial frogs to be seen—having at least been banished from the show windows.

Drs. Darby and Burton, dentists, second floor, U. S. Bank building.

The city mail boxes are being repainted and placed in a condition more sightly. The regular visit of the post-inspector is expected any time now, and the local office is "dolling up" considerably.

Dr. Awein, Zahnartz, Steeves Bldg.

Fred Dodd, who was arrested recently on a statutory charge, had his preliminary examination yesterday afternoon before Justice of the Peace Webster, and was bound over to the grand jury under $1,000 bonds.

Special meeting of Multnomah Chapter, No. 1, R. A. M. this evening at 7:30. Work in the P. M. degree. Visiting companions welcome.
